NOTES

Formerly part of Charlotteville Board School opened 1886 and enlarged 1890. In 1928 became Guildford (Selective) Central School and in 1945 Pewley County Secondary School. Lower part of school listed separately. Red brick with slate to roofs. One high storey, roughly E shaped. Roofs to end bars pitched to front and half-hipped to rear. Combination pitched and flat roofs to central bar. Between 2 long end and single short central bars two lower flat-roofed blocks. To rear, stepping down steep hill, long projecting wing with half-hipped roof. To front elevation, to gable ends, roof hidden behind brick parapets falling to terminating brick piers with surmounting terracotta 'urns'. To apex of each gable bulls-eye window above decorative frieze of swagged foliage in terracotta. Below again 2 windows with segmental brick arches and projecting brick 'key stone'. To flat-roofed blocks cornice with below similar frieze. To front elevations of blocks 2 windows with segmental brick arches with projecting brick 'key stones'. To front roof slope of back of E, 2 large dormer windows with slate to roof. To gable of central bar of E parapet falls on either side to horizontal brick parapets with surmounting urns. Behind lower parapets flat roofed lateral projections from central gable. Front elevation to central gable divided to height of lower parapets by brick piers. Between piers tall windows with segmental brick arches and projecting brick 'key stones'. All windows timber casements.
